The figure consists of two maps of the West Bank and Gaza Strip, illustrating the proposed Palestinian state territory under different agreements. The left map is titled 'de Camp David en juillet 2000' and the right map is titled 'de Taba en janvier 2001'. Both maps show the borders of Israel and Palestine, with a legend indicating 'Territoires autoritaires palestiniens (zones A et B)' in green and 'Territoires prévus pour l'Etat palestinien' in yellow. The maps show a significant reduction in the yellow areas between the two dates, indicating a change in the proposed Palestinian state territory.
